

Video of the Week Rubric

Criteria	0	1	3	5
	No comment is made by the due date or the comment is unrelated to the video.	At least one comment has been made by the due date; the comment does not meet the minimum specified time; the comment is not clearly tied to the video or related to relevant course content; demonstrates redundancy or repetition of existing comments.	At least one voice comment has been made by the due date; the comment demonstrates a general reflection or take-away; a general connection to course content is made; makes a unique contribution.	At least one voice comment has been made by the due date; the comment was reflective, information in the video was related to relevant course content; demonstrates evidence of one's unique interpretation and understanding.